Harold,

Re: your letter to Von Hoffman,
did you send him Publ. Wkly & Lat Rev.

Also I think MacDougall is right in this case. A little more temperance might get some results where intemperance can do nothing but satisfy your frustration.

If you can bring yourself to do it it might be a good idea to send him the reviews and a note apologizing for the tone of your previous letter and ~~letter~~
spelling out the relevance of your work.

Also send him the Kaplan review and biography

I noticed a few weeks ago that Fred Cook sometimes writes for the Times Review of the Week in Review. If you can get in touch with him about the Kaplan affair he might have some friends at the Times who he could talk to, at least to make them aware of Kaplan's past and Times refusal to publish any letters save Wolff's.

No reply yet from Palmer, also none from Mrs Aldrich or Ronnie Bennett or LA Free Press or Hentoff.

Must run. I'm at the office

Peace,

Jerry
